

The Confessions of Nat Turner

and Related Documents

Edited with an Introduction by Kenneth S. Greenberg

Contents

Foreword v

Preface vii

INTRODUCTION

The Confessions of Nat Turner:* Text and Context 1

PART ONE

The Document: The Confessions of Nat Turner 37

PART TWO

Related Documents 59

1. The Richmond Compiler, August 24, 1831 61
2. The Constitutional Whig, August 29, 1831 63
3. The Richmond Enquirer, August 30, 1831 67
4. The Liberator, September 3, 1831 69
5. The Constitutional Whig, September 3, 1831 72
6. The Richmond Enquirer, September 20, 1831 77
7. The Constitutional Whig, September 26, 1831 78
8. The Norfolk Herald, November 4, 1831 88
9. The Norfolk Herald, November 14, 1831 90
10. Excerpts from the Court Records of Southampton County, 1831 91
11. Nat Turner's Trial Record, Excerpt from the Court Records of Southampton County, 1831 101
12. Excerpts from the Diary of Virginia Governor John Floyd, 1831–1832 103

13. Letter from Virginia Governor John Floyd to South Carolina Governor James Hamilton, Jr., November 19, 1831 109
14. Thomas R. Dew, "Abolition of Negro Slavery," September and December, 1832 112

APPENDICES

A Nat Turner Chronology 132
Questions for Consideration 138
Selected Bibliography 140

Index 144